21. General architectural description:
Oriented to east, this duplex rests on a concrete foundation. White stucco covers the exterior walls. It has been raised into quoins on the southeast and northeast corners. Windows are 1-beside-1-light, sliding sash, with white vinyl frames. A 2-story, front gabled porch protrudes from the center of the front (north) façade. A concrete stairwell, descending from the south beneath the porch, provides access to the lower-level unit. A steel staircase, ascending from the north, provides access to the upper-level unit. The principal doorways into each unit open in the center of the facade. Both host green-pained, 4-panel doors, with fanlights. Black asphalt shingles cover the front-gabled roof. Green-painted wood soffit and fascia box the eaves.

42. Statement of significance:

Because this property is less than 50 years old and does not meet any of criteria considerations A through G, it is ineligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places. Moreover, the architectural and historical significance are not to the extent that the property would qualify for individual listing in the Colorado State Register of Historic Properties or as a City of Pueblo landmark. Given its age, the property should not be considered a contributing resource within any potential historic district.

43. Assessment of historic physical integrity related to significance:

Constructed in 2002, this house exhibits a high level of physical integrity relative to the seven aspects of integrity as defined by the National Park Service and the Colorado Historical Society: location, setting, design, materials, workmanship, feeling, and association. It has not been notably altered since its construction. This property retains sufficient physical integrity to convey its architectural and historical significance.

VII. NATIONAL REGISTER ELIGIBILITY ASSESSMENT

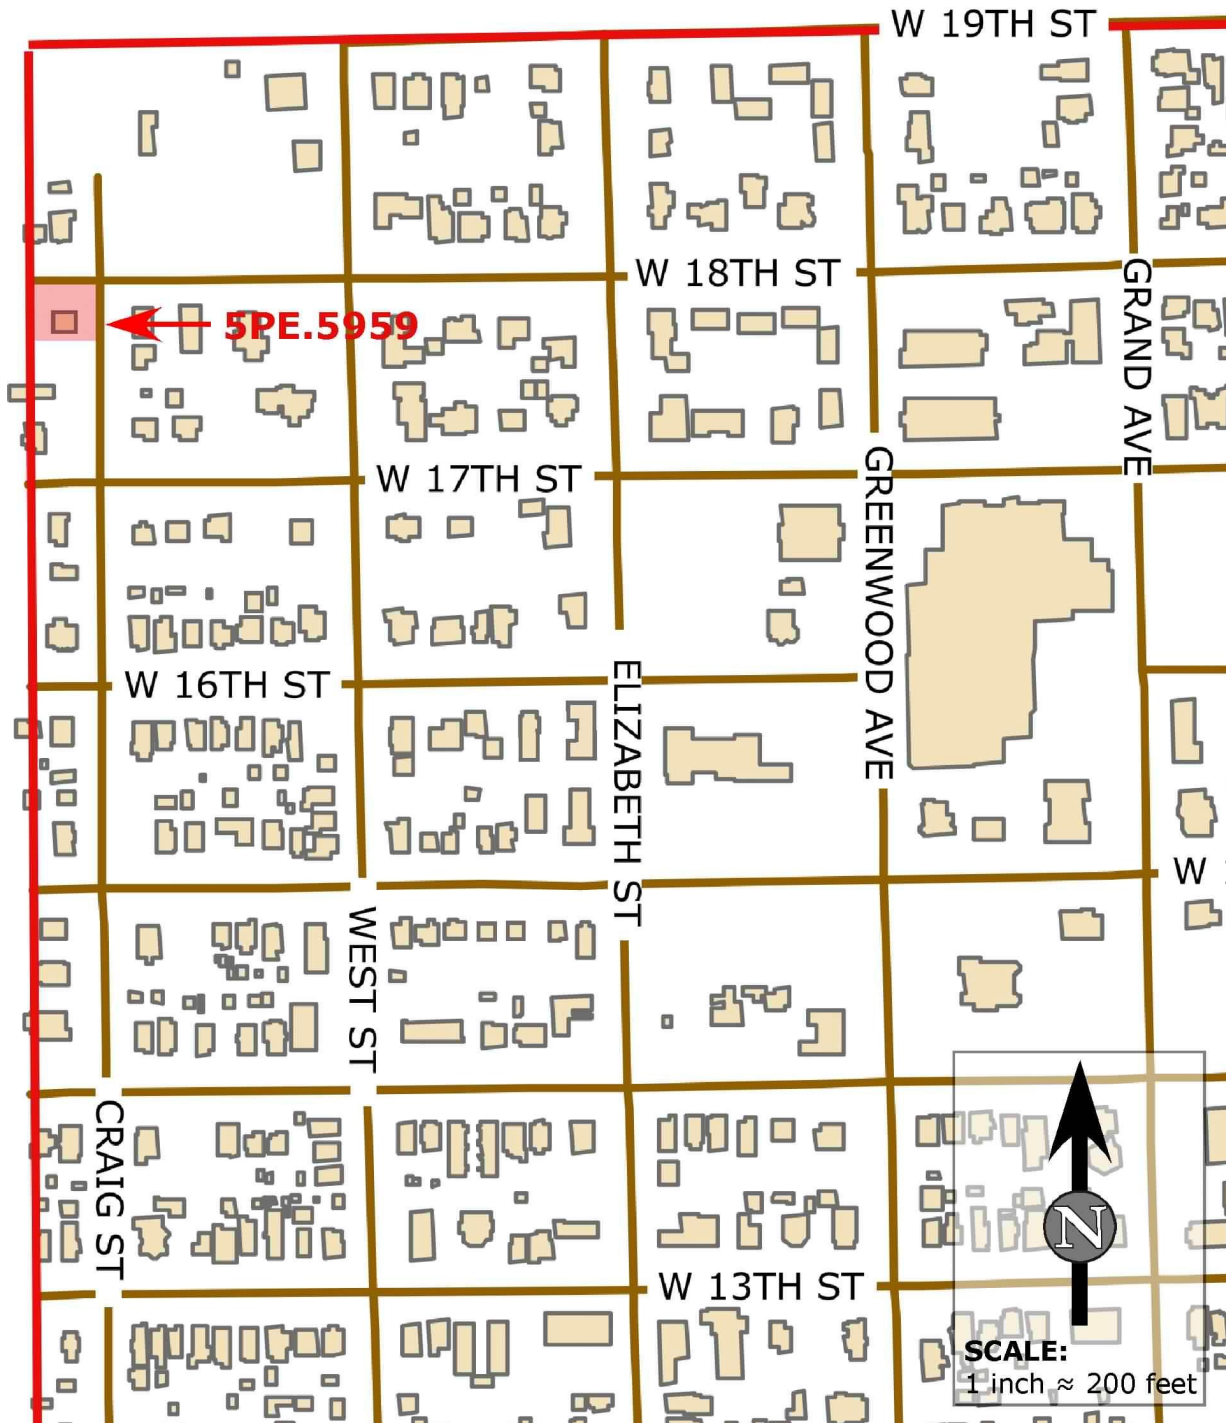

44. National Register eligibility field assessment: Individually eligible Not eligible Need data
Local landmark eligibility field assessment: Individually eligible Not eligible Need data
45. Is there National Register district potential? Yes No
- Discuss: Pueblo's North Side Neighborhood represents the evolution of the city's professional middle and upper classes. Its diversity of architectural styles and forms directly represents the city's changing economic and cultural climates. As well, the neighborhood is distinctive because it appears to have evolved independently of the area's dominant industry, steel manufacturing.
- If there is National Register district potential, is this building contributing: Yes No N/A
46. If the building is in existing National Register district, is it contributing: Yes No N/A
