21. General architectural description:
Oriented to the east, this house rests on a concrete foundation. Tan stucco clads the exterior walls. Windows are generally 1-beside-1-light, sliding sash, or 1-over-1-light, double-hung sash, with white vinyl frames. Single-light casement windows flank a hearth and chimney engaged to the north elevation. Brown-painted stucco covers the hearth and chimney. The principal doorway opens south of center in the asymmetrical front (east) elevation. Approaching the doorway are 2 concrete steps, sheltered by a shed-roofed hood on square, wood supports. Another doorway opens in the center of the rear (west) elevation. Gray asphalt shingles cover the side-gabled roof, and the rafter ends are exposed but capped by a fascia board.

23. Landscape or special setting features:
This property is located on terrain sloping downward from northeast to southwest, with an elevation of around 4,700 feet above mean sea level. The neighborhood features modest 1- and 2-story houses and apartment buildings. Setbacks from West Street are generally the same on this block. This property is situated on the southwest corner of West and West 16th streets. Separating the street from the sidewalk is a gravel-covered strip. A gravel yard, with mature landscaping, covers the lot. Encircling the property is a chain-link fence.

35. Historical background:
The original owner and resident of this house, constructed in 1933, was John A. Beiter, who resided here through at least 1935.
Claude J. Young purchased this property around 1940 and resided here, followed by Herbert F. Cawthon in 1945 and Hannah Anderson in 1950. She settled in Pueblo in 1917. With her husband, John H. Anderson, Hannah Anderson had two children, John S. Anderson and Marie Anderson. The elder John Anderson died on December 17, 1940. Hannah Anderson later moved to San Francisco, where she died on May 19, 1960.
The resident in 1955 was Robert J. McCall, an employee of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway and, later, Pueblo County.
Marion L. and Hubert I. Stock purchased this property in 1980, eventually selling it to Amel L. McLaughlin in 1989. Dale J. Hart acquired the house and lot from McLaughlin in 1996. In 1999, Gary and Jenny Miceli purchased the property. Jenny Miceli became the sole owner in 2001.

42. Statement of significance:

This property is historically significant under Pueblo Local Landmark criterion 1A for its association with the early 20th-century development of Pueblo's North Side Neighborhood. As well, the house is architecturally significant under National Register criterion C (Pueblo Local Landmark criterion 2A) as an example of a minimalist style resulting from the material shortages of the Great Depression. However, the levels of architectural and historical significance, combined with physical integrity, are not to the extent that this property would qualify for individual listing in the National Register of Historic Places, the Colorado State Register of Historic Properties, or as a City of Pueblo Landmark. Nonetheless, it is a contributing resource within any potential historic district.

43. Assessment of historic physical integrity related to significance:

Constructed in 1933, this house exhibits a moderate level of physical integrity relative to the seven aspects of integrity as defined by the National Park Service and the Colorado Historical Society: location, setting, design, materials, workmanship, feeling, and association. Alterations include the expansion of the front porch and the replacement of windows and doors. This property retains sufficient physical integrity to convey its architectural and historical significance.

VII. NATIONAL REGISTER ELIGIBILITY ASSESSMENT

44. National Register eligibility field assessment:  Individually eligible  Not eligible  Need dataLocal landmark eligibility field assessment:  Individually eligible  Not eligible  Need data45. Is there National Register district potential? Yes  No

Discuss: Pueblo's North Side Neighborhood represents the evolution of the city's professional middle and upper classes. Its diversity of architectural styles and forms directly represents the city's changing economic and cultural climates. As well, the neighborhood is distinctive because it appears to have evolved independently of the area's dominant industry, steel manufacturing.

If there is National Register district potential, is this building contributing: Yes  No  N/A 46. If the building is in existing National Register district, is it contributing: Yes  No  N/A
